

Job Description: Registered Nurse

Definition:

A Registered Professional Nurse is a highly competent, valuable member of the professional health team, who through clinical experience and education, performs with a high level of sophistication.

Qualifications:

- Current license to practice as a Registered Nurse in the state of placement
- Graduate of accredited school of nursing
- At least one (1) year of professional clinical practice on the specified unit as an RN in the United States

Functions:

1. Provides total patient care in accordance with physician's orders and individual patient needs within the scope of standards of nursing practice
2. Observes and documents information that reflects the patient's clinical condition, with respect to the entire human being. Reports the same to oncoming nurses, supervisory nursing personnel and physicians
3. Maintain accurate and complex records of nursing observation and care
4. Assigns patients to ancillary personnel based on patient's needs and personnel qualification
5. Supervises the care given by ancillary personnel
6. Acts as role model for ancillary personnel
7. Performs and/or supervises treatment and administers medication as required and documents such
8. Counts narcotics with another nurse according to the facility's policies and procedures
9. Conducts team conferences and assumes responsibilities for keeping plans, implementation and evaluations of Current nursing care
10. Actively participates in patient and/or family teaching, appropriately documents activity and response to instructions
11. Cooperates in maintaining a high level of order, safety and strict control over narcotics and other dangerous drugs
12. Institutes emergency procedures in the absence of physician to offset life threatening situations; maintains the defined institutions policies and procedures
13. Keeps abreast of current nursing trends and continuing education opportunities

Physical Demands and Working Conditions:

- Work is of medium physical demand; walking and standing most of the time on duty
- Frequent lifting and transfer of patients
- Frequent reaching, bending, handling and fingering of instruments and caring for patient's needs
- Hearing to distinguish differences in heartbeat and breathing of patient
- Near visual acuity to read gauges, instructions, medication labels and orders
- Motor coordination and manual dexterity to coordinate hands, eyes and fingers
- Color vision for perceiving changes in patient's skin and nail color and color of medications and solutions

By my signature below, I confirm that I have read the Job description and understand the contents thereof to be an accurate representation of my role while on an assignment with Worldwide Travel Staffing, Limited.

Signature

Date

Printed Name